Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That all money or property alleged or supposed to have been feloniously obtained [illegible] property clerk [illegible] of the Metropolitan police [illegible] and all such property [illegible] particularly registered by [illegible] for that purpose [illegible] the nature of [illegible] property or money was taken [illegible] the time [illegible] shall be alleged [illegible] brought with such [illegible] magistrate shall be [illegible] that the person [illegible] order [illegible] returned, and the property [illegible] such property or [illegible] and not to any [illegible] accused person [illegible] property or [illegible] before the magistrate, [illegible] behalf of any other persons than the [illegible] and the said accused person shall be held for trial or examination such property or money shall remain in the custody of the property clerk until the discharge or conviction of the persons accused. All property or money taken on suspicion of having been feloniously obtained or of being the proceeds of crime, and for which there is no other claimant than the person from whom such property was taken, and all lost property coming into the [illegible] of any member of the said Metropolitan police, [illegible] property and money taken from [illegible] by any [illegible] from persons supposed to be insane, intoxicated, or otherwise incapable of taking care of themselves, shall be transmitted as soon as practicable to the property clerk of the Metropolitan police [illegible] duly registered for the benefit of all persons and parties interested, and for the information of the public as to the amount and disposition of the property so taken into custody by the police. All property and moneys that shall remain in the custody of the property clerk for the period of six months without any lawful claimant thereto, after having been three times advertised in public news papers, shall be sold at public auction and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid into the policemen's fund. Provided, That horses and other animals taken by the police and remaining unclaimed for [illegible] may be [illegible] and sold upon ten days public notice, and all perishable property to be sold at once. If any property or money placed in the custody of the property clerk shall be desired as evidence in any police or other criminal court, such property shall be delivered to any officer who shall present an order to that effect from such court, such property, however, shall not be retained in said court, but shall be returned to said property clerk, to be disposed of according to the previous provisions of this act. And the annual compensation of said property clerk, as also the clerk (who shall hereafter be known as Secretary of the Board of police,) shall be twelve hundred dollars for each, payable monthly.

Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Board of Metropolitan Police to set apart a sanitary police company, to consist of not exceeding ten persons who shall be selected from among the police, and to assign to said company such special duties, by the rules and regulations as may be [illegible] advantageous, and also to appoint not exceeding three surgeons of police, who shall receive an annual compensation of three hundred dollars each and discharge such duties as may be required of them by the board of police. The Metropolitan sanitary company is hereby empowered, under such [illegible] power and duty as may be [illegible] rules and regulations, to visit and inspect [illegible] all ferry boats, manufactories, slaughter houses [illegible] and edifices [illegible] such other matters relating to health as are complained of and entered in on the complaint book kept by order of the board, and to take all necessary legal measures for promoting the security of life and health [illegible] said boats, manufactories [illegible] and to make report [illegible] premises to the Board of Metropolitan Police. When the said board shall [illegible] such report that any [illegible] slaughter house, tenement house, [illegible] or other act is being [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] police magistrate, and bring the [illegible] office of the Board of Metropolitan police. It shall be the duty of the said superintendent of the Metropolitan police force to cause [illegible] arrested persons to be rigorously prosecuted, [illegible]

[illegible] to be closed [illegible] doubtful purpose.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the Board of Metropolitan police shall possess powers of general police supervision and inspection over all licensed pawnbrokers, [illegible] dealers in second hand merchandise, intelligence offices, [illegible] of watches and jewelry, and suspected private banking houses and other doubtful establishments within the said Metropolitan police district, and in the exercise and furtherance of such supervision may from time to time empower [illegible] to fulfil such special duties [illegible] as may be ordained by the Board of Metropolitan police. The said board may direct the superintendent to empower any member of the Metropolitan police to [illegible] whenever such member shall be in search of property [illegible] claimed [illegible] suspected [illegible] to examine the books of any pawnbroker or his business premises or the business premises of any licensed vendor or dealer in second hand merchandise or intelligence office keeper, [illegible] suspected private banking, [illegible] or other doubtful establishments. Any such member of the Metropolitan police when thereto authorized in writing by the said superintendent and having in his possession a pawnbroker's receipt or ticket, shall be allowed to examine the property purporting to be pawned or pledged or deposited upon said receipt or ticket in whosesoever possession said property may be, but no such property shall be taken from the possession thereof without due process or authority of law. Any wilful interference with said superintendent of police, or with any member of the Metropolitan police force by any of the persons hereinbefore named in the [illegible] section whilst in official and due discharge of duty shall be punishable as a misdemeanor.

Sec. [illegible] And be it further enacted, That the Board of Metropolitan Police may from time to time, but without expense to the United States, establish stations and station houses or sub stations and sub station houses, at least one to each precinct, for the accommodation thereat of members of the police force, and as temporary places of detention for persons arrested and property taken within the precinct. No person holding office under this act, or the act to which this act is an amendment, shall be liable to military or jury duty, nor to arrest on civil process or to service of subpœnas from civil courts whilst actually on duty. The members of the Board of Police, the superintendent and secretary are hereby vested with all the powers conferred by law upon notaries public and justices of the peace in the District of Columbia. The members of the Board of Police, and of the police force of the said Metropolitan police district, shall possess in every part of the District of Columbia all the common law and statutory powers of constables, except for the service of civil process and for the collection of strictly private debts, in which designation fines imposed for the breach of corporation ordinances shall not be included; but the said Board of Metropolitan Police shall not enforce any law or ordinance discriminating between persons in the administration of justice.

Sec. 6. And be it further enacted, That the said board of police shall have power, and it shall be their duty from time to time, to select and employ from among the duly appointed and qualified justices of the peace for the county of Washington such justice or justices as may be required and as it may deem proper, to sit at the respective station houses for the hearing of such charges as may be brought against persons arrested and carried to said station houses, and every person who shall be sentenced to pay a fine and costs, or either, shall satisfy the same before being released by payment or by giving security to the satisfaction of the justice imposing such fine and costs. And when such security shall be taken the justice shall be held personally liable to said Board of Police for the amount of the fine and costs, to be collected of him as a debt due and payable.

Sec. 7. And be it further enacted, That no member of the Metropolitan police force, under penalty of forfeiting the salary or pay which may be due to him, shall withdraw or resign, except by permission of the Board of Metropolitan Police, unless he shall have given to the superintendent one month's notice in writing of such intention. There shall be no limitation or restriction of place of residence to any member of the Metropolitan police force, other than residence within the Metropolitan police district, and it shall be the duty of said Board of Police to cause the location of the policemen to be changed from time to time, as the efficiency of the force shall require.

Sec. 8. And be it further enacted, That the said Board of Police may appoint not exceeding six detectives who shall receive a monthly compensation of seventy dollars each.

Sec. 9. And be it further enacted, That the board of police for meritorious and extraordinary services rendered by any member of the police force, in the due discharge of his duty, may permit any member of the police force to retain for his own benefit any reward or present tendered him therefor, and it shall be cause of removal from the Metropolitan police force for any member thereof to receive any such reward or present without notice thereof to the Board of Metropolitan Police. Upon receiving said notice the said board may either order the said member to retain the same or shall dispose of it for the benefit of the policemen's fund. All fines imposed by the Board of Police upon members of the Metropolitan police force, by way of discipline, collectable from pay or salary, and all rewards, fees, proceeds of gifts, and emoluments that may be paid and given for account of extraordinary services of any member of the Metropolitan police force, (except when allowed to be retained by said member,) shall be paid to the treasurer of the Board of Metropolitan Police unless otherwise appropriated by the board of police.

Sec. 10. And be it further enacted, That the several members of the police force, including the commissioners of police, shall have power and authority to immediately arrest without warrant, and to take into custody any person who shall commit, or threaten or attempt to commit, in the presence of such member, or within his view, any breach of the peace or offence directly prohibited by any act of Congress or by any ordinance of the city or county within which the offence is committed, threatened or attempted; but such member of the police force shall immediately and without delay upon such arrest convey in person such offender before the nearest magistrate, that he may be dealt with according to law.

Sec. 11. And be it further enacted, That for the better exercise of the powers and duties hereinbefore [illegible] the board of police is hereby authorized [illegible] hereafter, but without expense to the United States, to cause to be [illegible] all the laws and ordinances [illegible] in the said District having relation and applicable to public health, and publish the same in a form [illegible] members of the [illegible] District, and the said code so prepared and such rules as the said board of police may from time to time adopt for the purpose of enforcing and carrying out the provisions thereof, shall constitute the law of the said District upon the matters therein contained. All laws [illegible] inconsistent with the provisions of this act [illegible] are hereby repealed.

Approved July 16, 1862.

WEDNESDAY MORNING NOV. 19 186[illegible]

IMPROVEMENT OF STREETS.—It is a fact perhaps not generally known by the citizens of Portland that matters have at length arrived at such a state as to prevent or rather cause a stop to the future improvement and repairs of our streets. There are two causes at present existing, which if not removed or overcome will effectually prevent all further improvements being made to the streets of Portland during the winter and perhaps for the next twelve or twenty months. The first and most direct cause is local and the other constitutional. We refer to the refusal of the Street Commissioner to attend to the streets, and the amendment made to the Charter by act of last Legislative Assembly. It seems that the Street Commissioner some five or six weeks ago, perhaps longer, rendered an account of his labors upon the streets to the City Council and claimed the sum of $115 for services rendered, duly certified and sworn to as the law directs, but from causes best known to the City Council this bill has been laid over from time to time up to the present, without being ordered paid.

The Street Commissioner further complains that he has for a long time past, found considerable difficulty in getting his accounts allowed by the City Council and that for these reasons he has at last determined to cease further operations until he ascertains whether the Council will allow pay for his services as provided by law, hence when repairs are needed, as is already the case in two or three places upon the streets, no one having authority to cause it done, can be found to attend and direct the work.

An act was passed by the Legislative Assembly of the State amending the City Charter of Portland, which provides that the cost for all improvements, repairs, etc., made to the streets, shall be paid one-half by the city and the remainder by property holders adjacent thereto. We are well satisfied that this amendment was made contrary to the wishes of a large majority of our citizens and not what was asked for or desired by any one.—That it will result disasterously to interests and improvements of the city is certain. No further improvements or expenditures of importance will likely be made as long as this law is in existence.

An amendment to the Charter was needed and asked for by parties interested, but not of the nature of the one made. Under the former regulations, the Charter provided that two-thirds of all such expenditures should be paid by property holders, and that the city might pay the remaining one third, though we believe the city has in no instance up to the present time paid any portion of such expenses. As the law now is it places the city in a worse position than before by compelling it to pay one half when a large majority of our citizens are opposed to paying one cent out of the public funds. It is true, there are several of our citizens who favor the idea that the city should pay the whole of such expenses, and the property holders none, but we are satisfied that a large majority are in favor of making property holders improve the streets around their own property. The amendment needed to the Charter was the granting of authority to the City Council to compel delinquents to pay their proportion of such expenses when made, by holding a lien on the property adjacent to the place where the streets were improved or repaired. We have not time or room in this article to show to what extent such lien should hold, or how the property should be disposed of in the enforcement of the taxes due thereon, but had such an amendment been made it would have been all sufficient, and the city would have continued to cause the street to be improved as heretofore at the expense of the property holders; but now, as before remarked nothing will be done as both parties, those who favor the payment by property owners and those who favor the city paying the expenses are opposed to this half and half arrangement, while none, or at least we have not yet met with any of our citizens who favor such an arrangement. If the city is compelled to pay one half the expenses of improvements now actually required to be done to the streets a revenue almost five times as large as at present assessed, will have to be raised to meet the demand, of which we may speak more at length hereafter.

DAILY MAIL TO THE DALLES.—The people of the Dalles and intermediate points will be pleased to learn that from and after this date a daily mail will be carried from Portland to the Dalles by the Oregon Steam Navigation Company. The contractors with the Government for the carrying of this route have at last been compelled to give it up and the Post Master in this city, Mr. H. W. Davis has made arrangements with the O. S. N. Company to supply this route with the mails. The mails for the Dalles will be closed each evening at 9 o'clock and leaves next morning at 5 o'clock on the boats for the Cascades. We are pleased to learn of the change and hope it may result more satisfactorily to our friends and the people of the Upper Columbia.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

BOSTON, Nov. 12.—Correspondence from on board the steamer South Carolina off Charleston says: The British frigate Racer by permission of Flag Officer [illegible] entered Charleston Harbor and brought away the British Consul. [illegible] are [illegible] from [illegible] rebel steamer Nashville is lying at [illegible] [illegible]

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The Herald's correspondent from North Carolina reports [illegible] the Roanoke. A letter says we have just taken this place with a grand [illegible] [illegible] The enemy [illegible] precipitately. The people [illegible] alarmed at our approach. [illegible] leaving [illegible] Sunday night [illegible] and [illegible] supposed [illegible] six pieces of artillery. Rebel loss [illegible] [illegible]

The same correspondent says: On the night of the 18th a vessel ran the blockade. She was fired at twenty two times by the Flambeau. Several shot struck her but without making the slightest impression; she must have been completely [illegible] and very thick, as the rifle shot would have gone through her. It is thought that this was the vessel which the rebels expected with iron plates.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 12.—It is rumored that Fort Darling has been strengthened by a heavy base wall of solid masonry, and a shroud of iron mail over the most exposed portion.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1[illegible]h.—The Richmond Dispatch of the 10th has accounts of the [illegible] Yankees destroyed nearly the entire place.

[illegible] represented to be 10,000 strong, with 40 pieces of artillery and considerable force of cavalry. They are also reported to have landed a large force at Palmyra twenty five miles from Weldon.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13th.—Washington Star says the army which is now in the vicinity of Warrenton has been at a stand still since receiving order of transfer to Burnside. On the night preceding receipt of his orders, McClellan announced to many of his officers his belief that within three or four days at farthest, he would fight the greatest battle of the war, and gain a victory for the Union, which would probably end the rebellion.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 10th says—"Significant movements are progressing along the entire line of Gen. Lee's army."

The same paper says: Gen. Hill had a fight with the enemy on Monday last, in Stark County, Shenandoah valley. The General says the enemy were soundly thrashed, and driven back four miles. Our loss was considerable.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13th.—A Nashville dispatch to the Tribune says: The main rebel force under Polk and Buckner is falling back southward. Bragg has resumed command. Gen. Joe Johnson's health being too much impaired for field service.

Gen. Rosecrans has ordered impressment of negroes belonging to rebels for fatigue duty and is also organizing a negro pioneer corps.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13th.—There was a rumor on the street last night that Capt. John Cremony, of the 1st Regiment of California Volunteer Cavalry, has been killed by Indians in Arizona. Correspondence from Los Angeles says that two companies have recently arrived at Camp Drum to quarter there for the winter. On the 8th July last a party of nine men started from Pino Alto mines, Arizona, for California. When they had reached within two miles of Apache Pass, 120 miles from the mines, they were attacked by Apache Indians and all murdered but one being left.

The same correspondent says: Kewen returned in great glory and will make a secession speech at the Monte to-day.

Kewen says he made Gen. Wright modify the oath twice before he would take it.

The Los Angeles News demands the recall of Gen. Wright and the appointment of some one who has not so much sympathy with secessionists and also says that Union men in San Bernardino know that secessionists are organized or are ready to rise and kill them when the signal is given.

Additional Eastern News.

General Schenck has been designated as the successor of General Wool at Baltimore and will probably leave for his new post within a few days.

A private letter from New Orleans says General Butler has taken possession of two large plantations near the city, and has transferred a large number of loyal blacks to them for active service. The number of fugitive blacks in the Department of the Gulf is increasing at a rapid rate, but by employing them in this way, says the writer, and paying them small wages, and charging them for clothing, the Government will be fully reimbursed for the expense.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Herald's Washington dispatch says: Advices have been received here from our squadron on the coast of Texas, by which it appears that while a couple of vessels remain at Galveston others have gone toward the Rio Grande. Up to the 20th of October [illegible] had arrived to follow up the [illegible] successes. The rebels hold the country [illegible] and make frequent incursions into the city at night. The people of the city flocked to the wharves to be protected from rebel soldiery.

A number of officers of the rebel service have been detailed by their War Department to carry on the contraband trade between Baltimore and Richmond. A large amount of quinine and two millions of percussion caps recently ran the blockade of the Potomac in the possession of some of these parties.

A reconnoissance was made on Saturday morning by Doubleday's division, which crossed the Rappahannock at Waterloo and explored the country five miles beyond the river, encountering the enemy in small force, routing them and capturing two cannon and several prisoners.

CARIBOO.—Miners are reported to be returning from Cariboo to Victoria and Puget Sound generally much poorer for the trip. They report the diggings in that country as spotted—there being very few paying claims.

FLORENCE.—We learn from miners just down from Florence that mining operations in that vicinity have about ceased as the snow has begun to fall and the ditches to freeze over, making the work exceedingly difficult and unpleasant. There are said to be about two thousand men at Florence and vicinage, the majority of whom will winter there.

CENSUS OF MULTNOMAH COUNTY.—We have been kindly furnished by Mr. Thomas Frazer, County Assessor, with the following statement, showing the population of Multnomah county as returned by him for the year 1862.

WARREN'S DIGGINGS.—Very few of the miners will winter at these diggings. All with [illegible] [illegible] will prove little [illegible] mining camp.

STABBING AFFRAY.—A stabbing affray occurred, says the Dalles Mountaineer, on the 15th in front of the New Orleans Saloon on Sunday evening. The parties participating in the disturbance were F. Ryley and a man named Thrift. A pistol shot was fired [illegible] the affray. Thrift was stabbed [illegible] and seriously wounded.

The Ladies Lint Association in San Francisco have received a dispatch from Dr. Bellows to the effect that [illegible] lint will be required. The ladies are requested to prepare underclothing, such as woolen socks, drawers and shirts.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City

CITY JAIL FIRED.—Yesterday morning about 9 o'clock the city jail was discovered to be on fire. It seems that an insane person, who had escaped from those who had him in charge and had been amusing himself breaking into houses and breaking out again during the night, was arrested yesterday morning by officer Branhan, and confined in the city lock up to keep him out of mischief. Before putting this crazy gentleman into the cell he was thoroughly searched by the officer, as is the custom, and six matches, found in his pockets, taken from him. He requested the officer to give him a match to light his pipe, as he wished to smoke, or to give him a cigar, both of which requests were refused on the ground that no smoking was allowed inside of the institution. He had not been in the cell an hour, probably not half an hour, when the alarm of fire was given. It seems from his own statement that he found, upon diligent search, after the officer left him, a single match, with which he set the bedding in the cell on fire and then gave the alarm. The fire was soon extinguished and but little damage done, and the Marshal informs us that the jail is already repaired and ready to receive all who may desire to partake of its hospitalities.

CIRCUIT COURT.—But few cases were disposed of yesterday, owing to a divorce case occupying most of the day. A large number were present to hear the pleadings.

State of Oregon vs Barney Treanor—two indictments for selling liquor without license. Plead guilty, and fined $50 on first and $100 on the second indictment.

DULL.—Business in the city was unusually dull yesterday, without any particular reason causing it. The day was quite pleasant.

FASHIONS.—We observe that the latest style bonnet has the peak still higher from the head. We observed a couple, on the head of two handsome young ladies (and we don't have any other kind in Portland,) going down Second street, yesterday, that had space enough between the head and roof to insert a pack-saddle, while the sides were strapped down to the cheeks and chin tight enough to hold it there in any gale.

FAST BOYS.—The city of Portland can boast, if boast it should, over the fact that it contains as many, if not more, fast young ones than any other city of its size and age in this free government, and should the number increase as it certainly will unless some means are speedily adopted to check their career, we predict that those of our citizens who have attained the age of manhood or womanhood will be forced to remain in the back ground or in doors for personal safety or the protection of their property. An instance of their aggressions upon the rights and supposed privileges of man, occurred last evening upon the arrival of the Julia, in which a party of these self important youngsters rushed furiously down upon the wharf, crowded themselves upon the gang-way and commenced their boisterous, deafening yells and whoops, much to the annoyance and interference of [illegible] and men engaged in discharging freight, etc. Their presence becoming intolerable, the Clerk of the boat ordered them to stand aside; whereupon one of the party deliberately drew a respectable sized bowie knife and made at the Clerk with all the venom and malignant hatred of a young devil, and had it not been for the timely interference of the Clerk's boot, well applied, the boy would have dangerously stabbed him. We believe it is high time something should be done to put a stop to the riotous career of a number of these idle, roving boys, and if their parents will not teach them better manners, the city should.

THE LECTURE.—We regret to record the fact that the attendance last evening at the lecture in the M E Church was small, much smaller than it should have been. We had hoped to see a crowded house, but were disappointed at finding only some 60 or 70 present. Had it been a nigger show or monkey performance, we warrant the assertion that the house would have been crowded to overflowing, but any thing calculated to elevate, improve and advance the morals and intelligence of the people of this nineteenth century is but slightly appreciated or patronized. A sad commentary upon human nature.

A NUISANCE.—The intolerable troublesome, noisy, intermeddling, boisterous gang of hotel runners and rowdy boys who congregate each night upon the wharf on the arrival of the up river steamers, is a nuisance which demands the attention of our peace officers and should be stopped.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A man by the name of N. W. Thomas died suddenly last night at the Arlington House. He went to bed about 9 o'clock, but soon after commenced to complain a little, upon a proposition being made to send for a Doctor he objected, saying that a physician could do him no good, as he knew all the day previous that he was going to die that night.

A physician was sent for, but before getting there the man was dead. He appeared in good health and had worked around the streets during the day, ate a hearty supper and gave no signs of indisposition until a few moments previous to his death.

ELECTION.—The regular annual election for one Chief and two Assistant Engineers of the Portland Fire Department will take place on Monday the 1st day of December next.

MEETS.—The City Council meets to night in the Council Chamber, and we are informed that matters of importance will probably come before the honorable body for disposal. It is hoped that all the members will be present.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO SANITARY FUND.—Before acknowledged, $14,482 82. H M Knighton, Vancouver, $10; Capt C Hopkins, 20; Asahel Bush, Salem, 50—Total—$14,562 82.

A HOLBROOK

VIG. H. & L. Co No 1.—A special meeting will be held at the Truck House this Wednesday evening, at 7 o'clock. A full attendance is required, as important business will be transacted.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

The Army Status the Administration.—[illegible]

[illegible] the great bulk of them heartily in favor of the war [illegible] Government and their absence from the polls will furnish ample explanation of the [illegible] congressional districts. Take the St. Louis [illegible] already quoted [illegible] correspondent [illegible]

The citizens [illegible] State [illegible] The soldiers' vote [illegible] the Second [illegible] For [illegible] Kentucky [illegible] the forty-one vote [illegible] State about [illegible]

It is not the [illegible] the character of the vote which [illegible] The fact is [illegible] a large majority to the Union State ticket and secured the election of six Union Congressmen. The Indiana volunteers were not permitted to vote, and the [illegible] was that the Democrats elected 7 out of 11 Congressmen and their State ticket by from eight to ten thousand majority. The Indianapolis Journal furnishes some figures which will show what would have [illegible] the volunteer vote from that State.

In the Ninth District where the Republicans had 3,000 majority in 1860 they have not [illegible] Democrats [illegible] Kentucky. If [illegible] Louisville Democrat [illegible] how is it that the total vote of the District is nearly as large as ever? [illegible] which gave but 35 Democratic majority in 1860 now gives over 2,000 and has 1,500 volunteers in the field. [illegible] were all Abolitionists [illegible] the last majority was the most infamous fraud ever perpetrated. The Eleventh District in 1860 gave a Republican majority of 2,000. It now gives a Democratic majority of 400. [illegible] Union men have gone to the war from the Eleventh District, yet the vote of the district is as large as it was in 1860. Schuyler Colfax devoted his whole energies to raising volunteers in his district, and was warned that by thus drawing off the Union men he was endangering his own re-election to Congress, yet he persisted. He obtained about 220 majority, whereas if he had persuaded the Union men to stay at home until after the election, his majority would have been numbered by thousands.

We believe an investigation would reveal the same condition of things in Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. It is ridiculous to claim that men who believe the Government is engaged in an "Abolition war" have volunteered to fight its battles. That class of voters have remained at home to engage in political intrigue and concoct their plans for a diversion in the North in favor of their ancient associates now in open rebellion. The great army of citizen soldiers are thoroughly loyal and in favor of employing every means for the suppression of the rebellion.

Revolution in Printing.—A correspondent of the Sacramento Union, writing from New York recently, says:

Permit me to make mention of a new machine which is destined to work a revolution in newspaperdom. The Semi Weekly Tribune of the 3d of October was printed from an endless sheet, on a machine invented by William Bullock of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and constructed at the works of S. S. Fowler & Co., also of Pittsburg. The introduction of stereotyping on daily newspaper forms paved the way for this new press, as the making of the first printer's roller led to the grand triumph known as Hoe's lightning press. Four pages are cast on a cylinder of about a foot in diameter, four other pages on the "other side" on another like cylinder; a large blanket drum three feet in diameter; two "distributing" cylinders; two sets of rollers; an immense roll of paper; a knife which cuts the sheets when printed—and you have the machine entire, filling a space of about ten by fifteen feet. One man only is required to run the press, even when on its highest speed—15,000 sheets an hour printed on both sides. It is to cost $15,000—just one-half the price of the great Hoe Machine. In these days of tithing, the sum saved is quite an item.

Report of the Harper's Ferry Military Committee.—The report of the Harper's Ferry Military Commission is published. Gen. White and Colonels D'Utassy and Trimble are acquitted of all blame for the surrender. The report finds that Colonel Ford was given by Col. Miles discretionary power to abandon Maryland Hights, but that in the exercise of his discretion he conducted the defense with no ability, and that his exhibition of lack of capacity disqualifies him for command. Col. Miles is convicted of incapacity and criminal neglect, especially in neglecting to fortify and hold Maryland Hights, the key of the position. The evidence in the report concerning his course with the rebels is such as to raise the strongest suspicion of treachery. Gen. Wool is gravely censured for placing so incapable an officer as Col. Miles in command. Concerning McClellan the evidence adduced in the report and the opinion expressed by the Commission are most direct and damaging. The General in Chief testifies that McClellan, after receiving orders to drive the enemy from Maryland, marched on an average only six miles a day in pursuit, and that in his opinion he (McClellan) both could and should have relieved and protected Harper's Ferry. In this opinion the Commission fully concur.

We take the following items from the Golden Age of Nov. 13th:

Horse Thieves.—Bill Roland and George Lane were sent out to Commissioner Newell for examination. They confessed their guilt and were turned over to the military authorities for safe keeping, and have been placed on duty in digging trenches at the New Post. They are now serving their country, and several more of our well known thieves and scoundrels will be placed in the same situation within a few days.

Fine Road to Cœur D'Alene Mission.—Some of our friends who have just arrived from the Cœur d'Alene state that an excellent wagon road exists from Lewiston all the way to the Mission.

Shot by Indians.—A packer whose name we have not learned was shot by Indians at Wild Horse Creek on Wednesday morning. The circumstances as we learn them are as follows: The Indians had stolen a horse from the packer; he followed them into the brush to recover the animal, and on coming up [illegible] upon them they seized him, took his revolver from him and shot him in the hip, inflicting a serious flesh wound. He escaped from their camp and ran away when they fired the remaining five shots at him, none of them taking effect. The Indians belong to the Umatilla reservation. We learn that Col. Steinberger has sent a detachment of troops in pursuit of them.

Killed.—A young man named Fuller, of [illegible] was killed near Auburn [illegible]

The Defense of Harper's Ferry. [illegible]

[illegible]

Ned Buntline in Arms.—A Fort [illegible] letter [illegible] Among the recruits recently arrived for the New York Mounted Rifles [illegible] Ned Buntline [illegible] is a private. Ned was in good spirits and [illegible] full of patriotism [illegible] His love of adventure will [illegible] the long [illegible] but will [illegible] soldier.

Distribution of West Pointers.—The Union [illegible] the statement of the Mobile Evening News that there are 14 Generals educated at West Point in the rebel army, to 41 in the federal army. The Union says we have 12, exceeding the rebels 58. As near as we can make out from the Army Register the Union is nearly right.

Religion and Patriotism.—Archbishop Hughes, the highest Catholic authority in the United States, says: "No enlightened Catholic can be [illegible] or adhere to a party whose cardinal principle is the perpetuation of slavery with all [illegible] faith and defying the thunders of the Vatican."

Victories.—An enthusiastic Democrat of an undoubted character, was crowing last night in this wise: "We have gained two victories—we whipped the Yankees at Bull Run and the Republicans in New York!"—S. F. Call.

"Are you not afraid your wife will get married again when you die?" "I hope she may, as there will be one man in the world who will know how to pity me."

The rebels were led at Perryville by Bragg, Buckner, Cheatham and Polk. But we poked Polk, bucked Buckner, took the brag out of Bragg, and couldn't be cheated of victory by Cheatham.—Lou. Jour.

They mean to raise full students out in Wisconsin. An exchange paper says: "Its board of education has resolved to erect a building large enough to accommodate five hundred students three stories high."
